APPENDIX A

Qualification system rules for the Road Races

MEN ELITE

9.2.010 - Men Elite

Decision of the UCI Management Committee by electronic vote February 2014, for the application of article 9.2.010 of the Regulations governing cycling.

The following nations will qualify for the UCI 2014 Road World Championships, Men Elite Road race:

1. The 10 first nations in UCI WorldTour classification by nation on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 14 riders, with 9 to start.

However, a nation with fewer than 9 riders classified in the individual UCI WorldTour ranking on 15 August 2014 shall start with the number of riders that are classified.

A nation with 6 or less riders classified in the individual UCI WorldTour ranking can never the less start 6 riders.

The nations that have fewer than 9 riders classified in the individual UCI WorldTour can complete their remaining athlete quota, by adding the places it would have received through their respective continental circuit - the UCI Africa Tour, UCI America Tour, UCI Asia Tour, UCI Europe Tour and the UCI Oceania Tour - but must not, however, exceed the athlete quota of 14 riders with 9 to start obtained in the UCI WorldTour classification by nation.*

Riders classified in the individual UCI WorldTour ranking	Maximum number of starters that can be added through continental circuit	Number of riders entered	Number of starters
9	0	14	9
8	1	Min 12 - Max 14	Min 8 - Max 9
7	2	Min 11 - Max 14	Min 7 - Max 9
6 or less	3	Min 9 - Max 14	Min 6 - Max 9

2. The 3 first nations of the classification by nation of the UCI Africa Tour on 15 August 2014 excluding the nations qualifying via the UCI WorldTour classification: the 1st nation qualifying under this rule may enter 9 riders, with 6 to start (rank 1); the 2nd and 3rd nations may enter 5 riders, with 3 to start (rank 2).
3. The 5 first nations of the classification by nation of the UCI America Tour on 15 August 2014 excluding the nations qualifying via the UCI WorldTour classification: the 1st and 2nd nations qualifying can enter 9 riders, with 6 to start (rank 1); the 3rd, 4th and 5th nations can enter 5 riders, with 3 to start (rank 2).
4. The first 4 nations of the classification by nation of the UCI Asia Tour on 15 August 2014 excluding the nations qualifying via the UCI WorldTour classification: the 1st nation qualifying under this rule may enter 9 riders, with 6 to start (rank 1); the 2nd, 3rd and 4th nations qualifying can enter 5 riders, with 3 to start (rank 2).
5. The first 14 nations of the classification by nation of the UCI Europe Tour on 15 August 2014 excluding the nations qualifying via the UCI WorldTour classification: the first 6 nations qualifying can enter 9 riders, with 6 to start (rank 1); the nations ranked 7th to 14th can enter 5 riders, with 3 to start (rank 2).

6. The 1st nation of the classification by nation of the UCI Oceania Tour on 15 August 2014 excluding the nations qualifying via the UCI WorldTour classification: this qualifying nation may enter 5 riders, with 3 to start (rank 2).
7. Each nation in the UCI WorldTour classification which has not otherwise qualified but has:
- a rider among the first 100 in the individual classification of the UCI WorldTour classification on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 5 riders, with 3 to start.
 - three riders in the individual classification of the UCI WorldTour classification on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 5 riders, with 3 to start.
 - two riders in the individual classification of the UCI WorldTour classification on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 3 riders, with 2 to start.
 - one rider in the individual classification of the UCI WorldTour classification on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.
8. The following nations on the Continental Circuits not otherwise qualified:
- The African nations with a rider among the first 5 in the individual classification of the UCI Africa Tour on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.
 - The American nations with a rider among the first 20 in the individual classification of the UCI America Tour on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.
 - The Asian nations with a rider among the first 5 in the individual classification of the UCI Asia Tour on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.
 - The European nations with a rider among the first 200 of the individual classification of the UCI Europe Tour on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.
 - The Oceania nations with a rider among the first 5 of the individual classification of the UCI Oceania Tour on 15 August 2014: each nation may enter 2 riders, with 1 to start.

* The places of the nations which have been qualified by the UCI WorldTour classification but are not allocated in regards of the particular dispositions will be reallocated to the nations from the 11th rank of the UCI WorldTour classification, with one supplementary place allocated by nation.

If the outgoing Men Elite World Road race Champion or the outgoing Olympic Road race Champion comes from a nation which has not yet qualified, he may take part in the first World Championship after he wins his title. He may not be replaced by another rider.

If the nation responsible for organising the World Championship is qualified in the second rank of nations via the classification by nation for its continent, it may enter 9 riders with 6 to start.

The limitation of the article 2.2.002 does not apply.

MEN UNDER 23

9.2.012 - Men Under 23

Decision of the UCI Management Committee by electronic vote February 2014, for the application of article 9.2.012 of the Regulations governing cycling.

The following nations will qualify for the 2014 UCI Road World Championships, Men Under 23 Road race:

1. The first 5 nations in the classification by nations of the UCI Africa Tour drawn up on 15 August 2014*: the 1st nation thus qualified may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters (rank 1); the 2nd nation may register 8 riders, 4 of whom will be starters (rank 2); the 3rd to the 5th nations may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters (rank 3).
2. The first 10 nations in the classification by nations of the UCI America Tour drawn up on 15 August 2014*: the nations thus qualified and classified from the 1st to the 3rd positions may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters (rank 1); the nations classified from the 4th to the 6th positions may register 8 riders, 4 of whom will be starters (rank 2); the nations classified from the 7th to the 10th positions may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters (rank 3).
3. The first 7 nations in the classification by nations of the UCI Asia Tour drawn up on 15 August 2014*: the 1st and 2nd nations thus qualified may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters (rank 1); the 3rd and 4th nations may register 8 riders, 4 of whom will be starters (rank 2); the 5th to the 7th nations may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters (rank 3).
4. The first 27 nations in the classification by nations of the UCI Europe Tour drawn up on 15 August 2014*: the nations thus qualified and classified from the 1st to the 15th positions may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters (rank 1); the nations classified from the 16th to the 20th positions may register 8 riders, 4 of whom will be starters (rank 2); the nations classified from the 21st to the 27th positions may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters (rank 3).
5. The first 2 nations of the classification by nations of the UCI Oceania Tour drawn up on 15 August 2014*: the 1st nation thus qualified may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters (rank 1); the 2nd qualified nation may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters (rank 2).

The first 5 nations of the final classification of the Men Under 23 Nations' Cup Road cycling (for men of less than 23 years of age in the current year) are entitled to an extra rider.

If a nation is included in the final classification of the Men Under 23 Nations' Cup Road cycling (for men of less than 23 years of age in the current year), but that nation is not yet qualified, it may register 6 riders, 3 of whom will be starters.

If the outgoing Men Under 23 Road cycling World Champion belongs to a nation that is not yet qualified, he may participate in the first World Championship following the award of his title. He may not be replaced by a substitute.

The outgoing Continental Champion may take part in addition to the number of starters that the National Federation of such Champions may enter under the qualification regulations. This facility is limited to the first World Championships following the awarding of the title of Continental Champion. If the nation of the outgoing Champion is not qualified, the Champion can participate.

The organizer nation may register 10 riders, 5 of whom will be starters.

* A classification of the nations will be drawn up on the basis of article 2.11.009 on 15 August taking into account only classified Men Under 23 riders.

 The final ranking of the Nations' Cup will be published at the end of the last race, at least 10 days before the World Championship.

 A nation cannot have more than 6 starters. In a case that a nation has already reached the maximum of 6 riders thanks to their final ranking in the Nations' Cup, this condition is not applicable.

RULES AND LETTER

Each National Federation is requested to provide an original letter signed by the President or Secretary of the Federation, who undertakes to pay for any damages, loss, and theft arising from the use of the vehicle. For ease see below example letter:

I the undersigned _____, President (or General Secretary) of _____, the National Federation, confirm that in the event of theft, damage, accident or confiscation of the vehicle made available to my National Federation by the UCI during the 2014 UCI Road World Championships in Ponferrada, Spain, the National Federation undertakes to pay the costs of repair, replacement or return of vehicle.

Each National Federation is requested to nominate drivers:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Dated: _____ Location: _____

Signature: _____

Should on collection, such a letter not be available, a deposit in cash of Euro 1,500 (one thousand five hundred euro) will be required prior to release of vehicle. The deposit will then be reimbursed in part or full in due time to the user by bank transfer after the assessment of the insurance adjuster, which could take up to four weeks.

NOTE

- Superficial damages to return vehicles will be noted, however, upon return to the manufacturer should underlying damages be associated with the vehicle, the repair costs will be the responsibility of the National Federation.
- National Federations must also take responsibility of speeding fines, parking fines, etc, where applicable.
- Damages and fines will be communicated to National Federations in writing on or before 31st December 2014.
